

Anna L. Rooker

August 16, 1931 - March 30, 2018

Anna L. Rooker, 86, of Hughesville died Friday, March 30, 2018 at The Gatehouse.

Born August 16, 1931 in Hughesville, she was a daughter of the late Clarence and Carrie (Hall) Hill. Her husband of 63 years, John R. Rooker, preceded her in death on January 21, 2014.

Anna was employed at various local retail establishments including the former Muncy Dry Goods, the former Haag's 5 & 10, Hughesville, the former American Rescue Workers, Hughesville and the former ACE Hardware, Hughesville. She was very much a people person who would do anything to help someone in need.

Anna was an avid reader who also enjoyed crocheting, knitting, walking, cooking, and buying and displaying collectables.

Surviving are a son, Steven E. Rooker of Baltimore, MD, and a cousin, Beverly D. Kilgus of Pennsdale.

In addition to her parents and husband, Anna was preceded in death by three brothers, Carl Hill, Elmer Hill, and John Hill; and two sisters, Pearl Marcey, and Kathryn Webster.

Funeral services will be held at the convenience of the family.

“ We had some good times going out to eat and talking about our knitting and crocheting. And we could always pick up the phone to see what each other had been up to and it was just nice to talk to someone. Will miss you Anna.
Your cousin B. Dean Kilgus

“ We will always remember the great times we had with Anna and John. Visiting Ocean City, NJ ; going down our cellar steps and up theirs with our newborn son, Rodney, to share breakfast; and the generosity of Anna in babysitting our young ones. Thank you for the great memories. Barb and Doyle Dodson
