“ Dear Kevin and Family. I was so saddened to hear of your mother's passing. I knew your mother and father when your mother and I worked for lawyers in Philadelphia in the 1960s. The three of us spent time together occasionally on a Saturday or Sunday and your mother and I spent every lunch time together at work. I took your mother to New York City for a day since she had never been there before that. We really had a great time and I believe she enjoyed the day. Since I have not had a response to my Christmas cards and letters for several years (we kept in touch each year), I was worried that something might have happened and, therefore, searched and was able to find the information of her recent passing. It does not matter how many years have passed since we last saw each other, I would have recognized that wonderful smile no matter how long it has been. Shirley was such a loving, kind and wonderful person and friend. I am so sorry for your loss. Elaine Roskow
